A CELEBRATION OF FINE CRAFT

A HAND-CRAFTED HOLIDAY MADE IN AMERICA

The Contemporary Crafts Market sits at a magical intersection where tradition and modern tastes meet. This is your chance to enter an oasis of fine, hand-crafted, American-Made art. Even better, it could be yours! This Holiday shopping season, dreams really do come true!

-Miniature Bronze, Suzye Ogawa)

This much-anticipated, 3-day event only happens once a year. Plus, it's a chance to meet the makers, today's modern-day masters, and explore everything they create: fine hand-crafted furnishings, jewelry, textiles, metalwork, blown glass and more.

Imagine, not a mall or mass produced item in sight! Instead, under one creative roof, at The Pasadena Convention Center, discover the new classics: one-of-a-kind works of functional, decorative and wearable art. Everything is available for purchase.

-Ceramics, Lois Sattler

Open to the public, October 27-29, 2017 (Friday-Sunday) buy the best, buy local and Holiday shop at of one of the longest running shows of its kind. Celebrating 33 years, The Contemporary Crafts Market is a timeless work of art.

ROY HELMS, CEO/Founder Contemporary Crafts Market

"When the human element is at hand, success, creativity and innovation thrive. Our inspired artisans have built lives and careers in the arts, infusing their custom creations with personal stories, style and talent. The public loves investing in hand-crafted artistry because it's beautiful and built to last. What better way to enhance home and life?! Leading designers, decorators and collectors know the ultimate luxury is always made by hand. At our event, we offer affordability that's handcrafted with heart. That's priceless."

- Jewelry, Glenn Dizon

As Winter arrives, the artisanal-driven economy is hotter than ever. The Contemporary Crafts Market proves art means business. It's the backdrop for a global trend. In the U.S., alone, Craft is a $30-Billion dollar a year industry. This October in Pasadena, experience an artistic adventure that is Hand-Crafted and Made in America!
